

Singham Returns Success Zakir Hussain on his next Game Paisa Ladki

•Written by amit bachchan•

••Wednesday•, 20 •August• 2014 21:09• - •Last Updated•

••Friday•, 22 •August• 2014 06:48•

The actor who have given numerous grey shades in different films and the last character played by actor was noticed in RGV's Sarkar is once again back with a bang. The film is Singham Returns where he was seen playing Parakash Rao, yes you have guessed it right. We are talking about veteran actor Zakir Hussain, While speaking with media Zakir said Post Singham Returns success he started getting more attention among his fans and is very happy with the box office result of Singham Returns. He also added that he owe this success to the director Rohit Shetty.

Zakir also shared his story as to how he came on board in Sigham Returns. Initially he was recommended by executive producer of the film and some other people who was part of Singham Returns. As an actor, he was very much under pressure as he it was his first film with Rohit Shetty and so many people had recommended his name, so even that responsibility was there to fulfill. Zakir very honestly shared with us that, "Rohit was not sure about my abilities as an actor but after shooting for 2 days with Rohit Shetty we gel together and rest is history". Zakir further added," Initially my role in the film Singham Returns was not so big but once Rohit Shetty as director started recognizing my ability as an actor, my role in the film started getting bigger as Rohit who showed his generous side by increasing the length of character in the film".

Zakir thanks Rohit for his kind gesture and he feels honored that one of the most successful director of Bollywood, Rohit Shetty believed in him and gave such an important role.

Zakir Hussain who is all charged up for his next film title Game Paisa Ladki is sure and excited about his role in the film, while speaking about his character in the film GPL as he prefer to use short form, Zakir said that he will be seen playing Pathan Bhai in the film, and he is confident that, people who loved his character Rashid in Sarkar, Parkash Rao in Singham Returns will certainly enjoy his Pathan Bhai role in Game Paisa Ladki.