It was an eventful day for the team of Table No. 21 as they launched the music of the film at Radio City. Present at the launch were Aditya Datt, Gajendra Verma, Viki Rajani, Paresh Rawal, Rajeev Khandelwal and Tena Desae.

Table No. 21 had earlier released two songs from the film, 'If You Lie, You Die' and 'Mann Mera'. Both the songs have received great response from the audiences. The music of the film has been composed by Gajendra Verma. The album has a range of songs varying from a groovy item number to a soulful romantic one. The trailer of the film too has generated quite a buzz as the film has already become a subject of intense discussions, and for its spellbinding plot and the surprise package of actor Paresh Rawal's comeback into his well-known villainous avatar

Directed by Aditya Datt, this high-concept movie is a twisted tale of mystery entirely shot at the striking Fiji Islands. Presented by Eros International and produced by Next Gen Films, 'Table No. 21' is scheduled to release on the 4th of January, 2013.
