Ajay Devgan wished best of luck to singer composer Allan Vaz for his new album Goenchim Festum

After delivering ten chart-topping hits with his debut Konkani album, 'Go Goa' in 2008, established Mumbai-based singer-music composer Allan Vaz is back with his second album, 'Goenchim Festam'.

It features ten foot-tapping original Konkani songs that cut across genres such as rock, dance, rock 'n' roll and folk. Goenchim Festam's biggest selling point lies in the musical diversity and the freshness of sound it offers to listeners, young and old alike. The album brings together some of the most talented names in the Mumbai music circuit, who have contributed towards the making the album the musical and lyrical genius that it is.

His excitement was doubled when Bollywood superstar Ajay Devgn, personally wished him luck for his new album "Goenchim Festam" and he lent his support to Allan's initiative to promote independent regional music India .
