Today is the biggest day for all the Indians who were waiting for justice to be delivered. When it was officially announced today, that the terrorist of 26/11 attack on Mumbai has been hanged till death, the entire country applauded for it.

Bollywood celebrity has always shown their keen interest in social activities. Many Bollywood Celebs has expressed their joy on Twitter. Let's have look what Celebs has Twitted -

Shreya Ghoshal - "Kasab, the lone surviving 26/11 terrorist, hanged at 7.30AM at Yervada Jail in Pune: Senior state government official." Finally!

Abhishek Bachchan - "Man who should be honored today: the one who captured Kasab: Asst Sub Inspector Tukaram Omble.

Mahesh Bhatt - Granting clemency to terrorists would produce a loss of public faith in the justice system, which is a pillar of any democratic society.

Mika Singh - Anyway all's well tht ends well!! hope all the ppl responsible 4 riots n murder get d same punishment as Kasab! Jai Hind!Bharat Mata ki jai!

Madhur Bhandarkar - #Kasab's execution is a victory not only for the mumbaiker who suffered at the hands of terror, but the entire nation.

Ram Gopal Verma - "If I were to be the hang man I would have shown the pictures of all his victims to Kasab before hanging him." "I wonder if the ghosts of the other 9 terrorists came to Yerawada jail to pick up Kasab's ghost after his hanging"

Ashish Chaudhari - I will NOT teach my children to rejoice anyone's death; be it Kasab. They will learn to be non-vindictive, non-fanatical and will love all.

Kailash Kher - Finally Kasab Got Hanged, Justice implemented in India, the world Believed our Law. Our People will be glad n in trust with governance.

Anupam Kher - Justice may not replace the feeling of loss but it gives strength & hope to continue life with renewed belief in system we live in. #Kasab

Riteish Deshmukh - #kasab hanging - congratulations govt of India - for doing it so effectively. For once the govt broke the news n not the news channels
