The popular choreographers of India, Remo D'souza, Prabhu Deva and Ganesh Acharya will give a unique tribute to late Pop Dancing Legend Michael Jackson. India's first 3D dance film AnyBody Can Dance (ABCD) will have choreographer Ganesh Acharya as one of the cast of the film. Prabhu Deva and Remo D'Souza, who are die-hard Michael Jackson fans, will pay tribute to Jackson in upcoming film ABCD.

The film is produced by UTV and directed by Remo. Prabhudeva said in a recent interview that they want to give tribute to the legend, so they will execute it when they will shoot our next song which will be featured on Prabhudeva and Remo.

"Everyone knows how deeply I respect Jackson, so when I'm doing a film on dancing, it is impossible to not have something related to him," Prabhudeva added.

The film also stars the winners of dance reality show of Zee Tv 'Dance India Dance,' Salman Khan, Dharmesh, Prince, Mayuresh and Vrushali.
