Ritika Bharwani, the young and talented designer showcased her latest collection of cocktail dresses yesterday at Amara. Ritika, who has been designing gowns since she was 16...

Ritika's latest collection is based on orange and deep blue hues, which is perfect for a night on the town! Buyers have their pick of either full length gowns or short dresses or even asymmetrical dresses! There really is a lot to choose from!

The event was attended by Sagrika Ghatge, an avid Ritika buyer, who looked lovely in a stunning blue gown designed by Ritika. Tulip Joshi whos was stuck in the mumbai traffic for hours but still made it for the lovely evening with friend and model shweta shetty , who could not seem to get enough of the collection! Captain Vinod Nair, the famous author was all praises for Ritika . Ceylan Erisen, the Turkish Counsel General along with Malti Jain were also seen shopping the lovely creations.

Speaking about the event, Ritika says that she is very humbled that she had such a positive response from the public and that she is thankful for the support that Sagrika and Tulip have given her!

All in all a spectacular evening for fashionistas!
