

The Evening of Beauty, Love, Money and Music at U S Consulate

•Written by Amit Bachchan•

••Monday•, 10 •December• 2012 05:34• - •Last Updated•

••Tuesday•, 11 •December• 2012 00:25•

Leeza Mangaldas hosted an Evoke India at U.S. Consulate Mumbai where speakers from different field came to express their views. Beautiful Actress Lara Dutta came first with her husband Mahesh Bhupathi was seen sharing her views on Beauty, she said “Beauty is something which is inner side and which reflect you the outer side, being beautiful is gift of god”. Other personalities were Rakesh Jhunjunwala, Ashok Row Kavi, Praseon Joshi, Shekhar Gupta, Mark Lilla and Azhar Hakim had initiated a dialogue on money, sexuality, love, violence, faith and substance.

Businessman Rakesh Jhunjunwala said, “It’s a great platform to express your view without any biased and I am glad to be here with young generation who are very desirable to money”.

The evening has graced with the beautiful voice of incredibly talented young musicians Armaan Malik son of Music Director Daboo Malik. He said, “I am very happy to be a part of Evoke India and get a chance to perform at such a huge platform. I am glad to sing my idol Sonu Nigam song”. Overall people was seeing grooming and dancing on the song of Armaan Malik.

The Evening of Beauty, Love, Money and Music at U S Consulate

•Written by Amit Bachchan•

••Monday•, 10 •December• 2012 05:34• - •Last Updated•

••Tuesday•, 11 •December• 2012 00:25•

