Arjun Rampal, who is a part of Dabboo Ratnani's annual calendar, is seen at his handsome best, in the ace photographer's clicks.

Arjun's calendar image shows him in a laid-back look. Seducing the camera, wearing a black hat and round framed sunglasses, the black and white image exudes character and style. It shows the actor prominently revealing the angel wings tattoo on his chest and the spider web on his arm, among others. Each tattoo has its own story to tell.

Arjun Rampal, who was seen at the maestro's 2014 calendar launch, said, "Dabboo and I always end up doing something fun together. He always manages to create different moods. This pic we call Mr. Hatter."

The audience will see Arjun Rampal, next, in Roy, which is slated to release in 2014.
