

Dreamers Campaign Kuch Sapne Sone Nahi Dete

•Written by amit bachchan•

••Monday•, 21 •April•, 2014 03:31• -

Dreams is what director Amole Gupte believed in when he made his upcoming film Hawaa Hawaa which has the tag line “Kuch Sapne Sone Nahi Dete”.

The film starring Saqib Saleem and Partho Gupte is all about dreams of a young boy and his coach who has faith in him. The film's trailer has already garnered a lot of appreciation so much that many leading film celebrities have come together to share and talk about the dreams that didn't let them sleep in what is truly a unique initiative to reach out to the audiences called the Dreamers Campaign.

Speaking about dreams, Vidya Balan who recently received the Padmashri award says today she has achieved all the success because she believed in her dreams. “Please listen to your inner voice as nobody knows more about you than yourself” she states.

While Filmmaker turned actor Farhan Akhtar adds “When you achieve your dream, you will find that there's lot more fuel lying there for you”.

Dreamers Campaign Kuch Sapne Sone Nahi Dete

•Written by amit bachchan•

••Monday•, 21 •April• 2014 03:31• -

Iconic actor Boman Irani on the other hand firmly states to, “Be Careful of what you dream of because you will get it someday.”

Renowned gold medalist and archer Deepika Kumari says, “Try to make the most of what you have and give your 100 percent, whereas cricketer Yuvraj Singh feels that it is important to believe in oneself, “Remember to believe in yourself and have a never say die attitude in life” he quotes.

If these celebrities could achieve their goals because they believed in their dreams, we can always strive to work hard towards achieving our dreams too.