Director, Jabong.com, along with Event Promoters Procam International represented by MD Anil Singh and Jt. MD, Vivek Singh.

Registrations for the event's Full Marathon and DHL Corporate Champions categories will open on Tuesday, July 22, 2014. Physical modes of registration at Standard Chartered Bank branches will close on Saturday, September 20, or whenever running places are full, whichever is earlier. Depending on availability of running places, registrations through online applications and P.O Box entries for the Full Marathon will remain open until Saturday, November 29 or till running places are full, whichever is earlier.

Registrations for the unique Police Cup category will also begin on Tuesday, July 22. The Police Cup is a relay race within the Full Marathon, introduced for teams from the Mumbai Police Force. Each Police beat can field only one team comprising four runners for the Police Cup (mixed teams allowed) where each team member can cover a distance of approximately 10.5 km.

Registrations for the Half Marathon will open at 10.00 am on Wednesday, July 30 and close on Saturday, August 30 or whenever running places are full, whichever is earlier.

Registrations for the Dream Run will open at 10.00 am on Tuesday, September 2, and close on Saturday, September 6, while registrations for the Senior Citizens Run and Champions With Disability will open on Monday, September 8, and close on Saturday, September 20, or whenever running places are full, whichever is earlier.

Sunil Kaushal, Regional Chief Executive, India & South Asia, Standard Chartered Bank, stated "The Standard Chartered Mumbai Marathon has moved on from being a sporting event to being a catalyst for social change. Over the last eleven years, we have been happy to lend our unstinted support to this movement and help it grow into one of the world's favourite marathons. This marathon bears testimony to our vision of being 'Here for good', about investing in and contributing to community development and about partnering with our clients and stakeholders. We are delighted with the support and popularity that the Standard Chartered Mumbai Marathon has garnered and we urge the people of Mumbai to lend their support to various causes through this movement."

Speaking about the 12th edition of the marathon, Vivek Singh, Jt. MD, Procam International said, “We are just under six months away from experiencing the adventure, magic and joy of yet another Standard Chartered Mumbai Marathon. We look forward to bringing you a sporting celebration unlike any other and encourage both seasoned and amateur runners to Go the Distance and register for the Marathon in the days to come. We would also like to welcome our new sponsors Cigna TTK Health Insurance and Jabong.com and express our gratitude to our all sponsors and partners for their relentless support to the event.”

Event Ambassador John Abraham said, “The time has come, yet again, for Mumbaikars to come forward and celebrate not just the city’s everlasting spirit and energy but put their best foot forward and participate in India’s most prestigious marathon. As registrations are launched for the 12th edition of the event, I urge people to sign up, train well, and Go the Distance on Race Day in January 2015.”

New Sponsors: Over the years, India’s most respected brands have partnered SCMM as it breaks new ground in the country’s commercial capital. New and existing associations draw attention to the trust and belief the event’s partners place in SCMM on an ongoing basis.

This year, Cigna TTK Health Insurance and Jabong.com are associating with the marathon as the Health Insurance and Online Retail partners respectively. Cigna TTK has established a distinct position in the health insurance industry as a company that takes care of its customers not just when they are ill but also encourages them to stay healthy. Jabong.com, on the other hand, is a leading sports & fashion multi-brand e-store. With more than 1500 international high-street brands, sports labels and Indian ethnic and designer labels, there is a wide variety for a consumer to choose from.

“We are delighted to be associated with Standard Chartered Mumbai Marathon 2015 as the Official Health Insurance partner. At Cigna TTK Health Insurance, our mission is to help the people we serve improve their health, well-being and a sense of security. We do this by encouraging our customers to stay healthy through our health and wellness programs. Running is becoming increasingly popular and one of the best ways to stay healthy. Over the years this event has successfully promoted good health and we look forward to partnering in making the event bigger and more successful this year, said Gaurav Rajput, Chief Marketing Officer, Cigna TTK Health Insurance.

Praveen Sinha, Founder and Managing Director, Jabong.com said, “We’re delighted to tie up
