Kriti adds another shining moment to her life, signs her first ever commercial post Heropanti. We caught this pretty lass on the sets. Kriti is playing a college girl, hanging around with her friends and enjoying it all. She is caught swaying and showing off her hair, clicking selfies making work all fun. Kriti also talks about her shine moments in life, her latest moment being to be the face of Parachute Advanced Jasmine hair oil.

All work and no play is definitely not Kriti's mantra for sure. See it yourself and check her out in this video and don't miss her first commercial on TV.
