

Daler Mehndis first Marathi song out now

•Written by amit bachchan•

••Friday•, 08 •August•, 2014 11:09• -

Daler Mehndi, King of Indi-Pop has surprised his fans again and this time with a Marathi Devotional Song. The video of 'Morya Morya' the song from an upcoming Marathi movie Janiva is out now. The song is a tribute to the Lord Ganesha and Daler Mahndi's powerful voice perfectly complements the music. This high energy number captures the essence of the Ganesha Festival and is perfect for the upcoming season.

Daler Mehndi was extremely excited to record his first Marathi track. "This is my first Marathi song and I am really looking forward to see the reactions of my fans. There is nothing more exciting than singing a song dedicated to our Lord Ganesha," adds Daler who is a very big believer in God.

Janiva's producer Srman Jain met Daler Mehndi on the sets of a TV show and decided to rope him in for the song. He complimented Daler by calling him an amazing singer and added that the singer's strong voice is apt for the song. After recording his first Marathi song, Dalerji tweeted, "It was an absolute #fun recording #Marathi Song for the first time, I am sure the song is going to rule charts."

'Morya Morya' has been composed by Harshwardhan Dixit and penned by Mangesh Kangane. 'Janiva' has been directed by Rajesh Ranshingee and produced by Blueeye Productions & Aryana Productions.