SAB TV, India's most loved family channel is all set to launch a unique comedy revolving around the amusing trials and tales of neighborhood's favorite firefighter 'Chandrakant Chiplunkar Seedi Bambawala'. The TV series, named after the protagonist itself, features industry veterans Prashant Damle and Kavita Lad as an exceptional Marathi – Gujarati couple. The show is a wholesome family entertainer and will hit the small screen on 18th August and shall be aired Monday to Friday at 10 pm.

The show by Dharmesh Mehta from Naman Raj Productions, is an industry first when it comes to its unique story line around the firefighters' community and their families. It explores the humorous life of the Chiplunkar family and its interesting mix of neighbors who always come together to help each other. The plot gets its humorous flavor from the genuine selfless character trait of Chandrakant Chiplunkar which inhibits him from refusing help to any person eventually landing him in a conundrum! The TV series shall showcase the funny incidents that the firefighter gets involved in and the hilarious events that ensue after his cosmopolitan mix of extended family join hands to assist him in his endeavors often resulting in a comedy of errors!

Mr. Anooj Kapoor, Senior EVP & Business Head - SAB TV said, “SAB TV’s unique proposition has always been differentiation through innovation. With Chandrakant Chiplunkar Seedi Bambawala, we at SAB TV add yet another show with a distinct concept to our foray. The show accentuates SAB TV’s core belief of ‘Asli Maza SAB Ke Saath Aata Hai’ and beautifully illustrates the positives of joint family system. The story revolves around the heroics of a good-hearted and helpful fireman”

“We have had an excellent long-standing relationship with Dharmesh Mehta and have also worked on a number of hit shows in recent past. The lead protagonist is being played by the one of the finest actors, Prashant Damle, we are glad to welcome him into the SAB family”
